New Look and New Address for the Law Library's Website

Now part of the Stark County website, the new law library website is available at: <http://www.starkcountyohio.gov/law-library>.

The site has a new menu on the left side, but still includes links to local court sites and municipal and township codes on the legal links page.

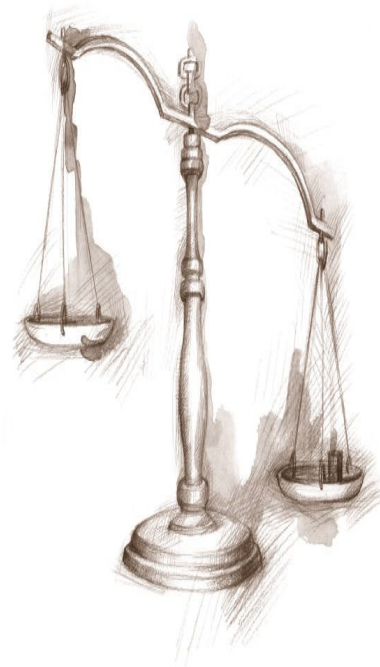

There is also a link to the online catalog where you can search for library items and see which items you have checked out and when they are due. (Contact the law library staff to request your User ID and PIN.)

Copies of library newsletters and research guides are also on the website.

It is easy to navigate to other Stark County government sites by using the menu at the top of the page.

If you have comments or suggestions regarding the website, please send them to inform@starklawlibrary.org.
